Nominations, and considering the existing circumstances, I deem it wise not to offer any names, at present. Yet I beg leave to say that I am prepared to make recommendations, in reference to these professorships, to the Board, or to its committee, if they be desired. Respectfully submitted, W^m M. Blackburn. President of University of N. Dakota. was accepted and placed on file. The following report from Dr Blackburn, viz: - University of North Dakota. June 2d. 1885. To the Honorable, the Board of Regents. University of North Dakota. Gentlemen: I respectfully report, that in conformity to arrangements made by the Faculty for the instruction of classes, I have taught classes as herein set forth: 1. Sub-Junior Preparatory in English Grammar, during most of the fall term, four, and often five, hours per week. Members enrolled. 16. 2. The same class in Reading, during the same period. 3. Sub-Junior in the History of the United States, during most of the year, two hours, and since January 6th. One hour each week. The subject completed. Members enrolled.-20. 4. Junior Preparatory in Ancient History, during most of the year, one hour, and since about April 1st two hours each week. The subject completed. Members enrolled-37. 5. Junior Preparatory [sic], in Algebra to Fractions, during nearly three winter months. The class, being divided into two sections, was taught 6 hours each week. Members enrolled--16. 6. Senior Preparatory, in the History of Greece and Rome, since January 25th, one hour each week. The subject completed. Members enrolled.-15. 7. Senior Preparatory, in Geometry, since March 30th, two hours each week. Members enrolled-10. It is proper to say that few of the students were sufficiently advanced to take high studies in the mental, moral and political sciences, and the Faculty did not deem it advisable to have instruction given, this year, to Normal students in Hopkin's "outline Study of Man," Alden's "Science of
