Prof. M's report of
Mrs. Mott's
work.

Prof. Merrifield's report of Mrs. Mott's work for the past year as follows, viz: – Grand Forks, Dakota. 1st June, 1885. To the Board of Regents, University of North Dakota. Gentlemen: – In the absence of Mrs. E.S. Mott, I am directed by the Faculty to make to your Board a brief statement of the nature and amount of the work done in Mrs. Mott's department during the period of her connection with the University. From the data at hand, I find she gave instruction to the Junior and Sub-Junior classes, from Sept 8th to Nov. 17th, when trains began to stop at the University, in the following subjects: – Arithmetic, Geography, Reading, Spelling and Dictation, Writing and (for one week only) English Grammar. The number of hours instruction varied during this time, as new students came in and new classes were formed, but at one time aggregated nineteen hours per week. From Nov. 17th to the close of the first term, she gave instruction to the same classes in the same subjects, with the exception of English Grammar, an aggregate of fifteen
