

some advance in the advanced part of Otto's French Grammar, read eight chapters of Madame De Staels L. Allemagne and began Molien's Les Femmes Sarantes, besides reading weekly exercises in French Composition.

The Freshman Class; had but one hour a week in French during most of the year, During this time the class reviewed the Grammar previously studied, completed DeFira's French Reader and read two books of L. Histoire de Charles XII

The Senior Preparatory Class, with three hours a week of class work, began, finished and reviewed Part I of Otto's French Grammar and read through two-thirds of DeFira's Reader. German.

The Sophomore class. with an average of one hour and a half of class work each week, completed the preliminary course and made some progress in the advanced course in German, besides reading about four Acts of Schiller's Wilhelm Tell. The Freshman Class with an average of somewhat less than two hours of class work each week, has completed the preliminary course in German and has read a book of selections from Grimm's Hans Marschen.

History. Mental Science

The Sophomore Class has had one hour each week in History, the first half of the year being devoted to Roman, the latter half to English History. This class also devoted an hour each week to class room work on Hopkin's Outline Study of [illegible word].

The Freshman Class devoted one hour a week to classroom work in the outlines of Greek History.

Respectfully Submitted.

John Macnie

Prof. in Charge.

Prof. Woodworth.

I herewith submit the Annual Report of work done in the Department of Mathematics and Physics, for the year 1886-7. Senior Preparatory class including several in the Normal Department & some special students, twenty one, have been connected with this class. The work has been three hours a week in Algebra, in review, from the beginning to Involution and Evolution. The class has received instruction in Geometry two hours a week, completing the first three Books of Wentworth. Eight of this class has taken