Hon H.N. Roach.

Dear Sir:

Since writing you yesterday I have examined Militia law concerning question of loaning you old arms. I will be unable to comply with your request and I regret it exceedingly. I would call your attention to Sec 67 of Chapter 100 Laws of 1887.

Respectfully.

L.K. Church.

Larimore D.T. Decr 1st, 1887.

Hon L.K. Church.

Gov^r Bismarck

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 22nd ulto[-]stating that you had found objections to furnishing arms to the Students of our University, was duly rec'd. It was such a matter of disappointment to me and the other members of the Board, that we have been to some trouble to read up the Section & Chapter referred to by you. After a careful reading and construction by us, and others versed in the law, of the Chapter mentioned we are firmly convinced that the enactment means only to apply to individual cases, and the objection, so it seems to us, would only hold in the case of a loan, donation etc to an individual, private
